

meet the ASA Alumni Council 2019-2021

David Akhvlediani
ASA Generation	ASA 2008
Location	Tbilisi, Georgia
David is currently working as MPA Program coordinator at the Georgian Institute of Public Affairs. Previously, for five years he has worked for the different agencies of the Georgian Public sector. He holds an MA degree in Public Policy from the Korean Development Institute and an MA in International Relations from Collegium Civitas, Warsaw. His professional interests are: Public management; anti-corruption policies, EU neighborhood Policy, Post -Soviet conflicts. In his free time you can find him climbing Caucasus mountains or exploring South East Asian countries.
Email: davitakhvlediani@gmail.com

Galen Englund
ASA Generation	ASA 2015
Location	Phnom Penh, Cambodia
Galen is a humanitarian researcher specializing in violent conflict and forced migration, developing analyses for the prediction and prevention of both. With over eight years' experience, including substantial engagements in the Balkans and East Africa, he has worked for a variety of governments, NGOs, and UN agencies. Galen holds an MA in Public Policy from Central European University, an MA in Development & Public Policy from the Institute Barcelona d'Estudis Internacionals, and BA in Global Studies from ASU. Originally from Alaska, Galen is addicted to travel and cooking after wandering through over 60 countries – while whistling in every single one.
Email: galen@englundconsulting.org

Michele MacMillan
ASA Generation	ASA 2017
Location	Washington, D.C. USA
Originally from the Sonoran Desert, Michele is a security and development professional. Her thematic background is in social cohesion, displacement and youth empowerment with regional experience in Eastern Europe and East Africa. She holds an Erasmus Mundus MA in Public Policy from Central European University and Institute Barcelona Estudios Internationals and a BA in Political Science from the University of Arizona. You can usually find her hunting for the best taco place in the city or practicing yoga.
Email: michele.l.macmillan@gmail.com

Julia Michalsky
ASA Generation	ASA 2013
Location	Berlin, Germany
Julia is based in Berlin where she works as a program manager for the alumni network of the Hertie Foundation with a focus on encouraging active citizen- and leadership. She has a BA in European Studies from Maastricht University and a MA in Central and Eastern European History from Central European University. Julia enjoys sharing her passion for CEE, comics, urban history, cats and books.
Email: julia.michalsky@gmail.com

Tatiana Valyaeva

ASA Generation

ASA 2017

Location

Munich, Germany

Tatiana is a graduate student of Political Science and Environmental Studies at Munich University, and until July 2019 on an exchange in Seoul, South Korea. She also holds an undergraduate degree in International Relations from the University of St Andrews. Her professional interests lie in EU-Russia relations, especially in energy security and the environment. In her free time, she likes to travel, read, eat great food - and preferably, do all of these at once.

Email: t.valyaeva@t-online.de