Overview: The Fellows

An overview of all of the fellowship projects in random order.
++do not share and publish++
These texts will not be published, they are for internal use only.

Feminist Curricula
#feministcurricula #intersectionality #designeducation
Team: Maya Ober

Feminist Curricula is an open online directory of educational design initiatives that uses feminist perspectives to explore alternative ways of learning and teaching. It is a sister project of depatriarchise design, an intersectional, feminist design research platform.

https://feministcurricula.org
 https://depatriarchisedesign.com/

_____

Dark Matters Database
#healthequity #healthadvocacy #darkmatters
Team: Imogen Malpas

The Dark Matters Database is a collaborative online portal documenting under-pu-blicised illness presentations in Black, Indigenous and People of Colour (BIPOC). It is built on crowdsourced symptom information in the form of text and/or images from anonymous submitters of colour around the world and will serve as a diagnostic aid for clinicians and a self-advocacy tool for BIPOC.

_____

Networks of Trust
#CommunityBuilding #PossibleFutures #NetworksOfTrust
Team: Kyriaki Goni

Networks of Trust is an offline network running on IPFS, which hosts stories about tech, population movements and the climate crisis. It proposes fiction as a method for building community, understanding the present moment and envisioning possible futures.

https://archipelago2092.xyz

Beyond the Green
#beyondthegreen #queerjournalists #feministmedia
Team: Camila Nobrega

Beyond the Green is a journalistic experimental project which explores feminist narratives about megaprojects that affect our lives, bodies, and territories. It combines investigative journalism, academic knowledge and artistic languages together in a documentary process with the aim of unveiling power dynamics in an increasingly digital world. It aims to strengthen narratives around social-environmental justice.

_____

Algorithms of Late Capitalism: the card game
#AI #Game #VisionaryFiction
Team: Karla Zavala Barreda & Adriaan Odendaal

Our project is a community co-designed critical card game that induces players to reflect on the absurdities of our technological present and imagine futures that are more fair.

https://algorithmsoflatecapitalism.tumblr.com/
https://internetteapot.com/

_____

Building tech resilience against domestic abuse in Italy
#FeministTech #GenderBasedViolence #DigitalSelfDefence
Team: Elena Silvestrini, Silvia Di Cesare, Claudia Fratangeli

Chayn Italia is an intersectional feminist tech project for survivors of domestic abuse and frontline workers across Italy. The purpose of this project is to develop resources and run training sessions on the dual nature of tech, which can enable abuse but also be a tool for defence, resilience and positive connection.

http://chaynitalia.org
https://www.facebook.com/chaynitalia www.instagram.com/chayn_italia

La banlieue du Turfu

#enchantment #turfu #cocreation
Team: Makan Fofana & Hugo Pilate

Turfu is French slang for the future. The aim of this project is to create speculative futures for the French banlieues (suburbs) which counter the prevailing narratives of pessimism and deprivation. Not only are these misconceptions misleading, they stand in the way of the reinvention and reinvigoration of these urban neighbourhoods.

https://gaite-lyrique.net/evenement/sur-les-traces-de-la-banlieue-du-turfu

——

HammamRadio

#feminism #grassroots #participation
Team: Abir Ghattas

HammamRadio is a feminist participatory online radio, launched from Berlin. It is a space where womxn, trans and queer folks organise, educate and carve out space to disrupt mainstream narratives.

https://hammamradio.com
https://instagram.com/hammamradio https://twitter.com/hammamradio

——

OUSA Collective

#Illustration #socialchange #artivism
Team: Ana Filipa Maceira and Irem Kurt

OUSA is an intersectional digital platform for marginalised and migrant perspectives. We raise awareness of inequity and discrimination by creating new forms of collaboration and sparking creative exchange. OUSA is welcome to everyone with a respectful, open and creative mind.

https://www.instagram.com/ousa.collective/

[multi'vocal]
Team: Frederik Tollund Juutilainen, Mads Pelt, Stina Hasse, Alice Baird and Nina Cecilie Højholdt

[multi'vocal] works towards an alternative future for digital voice-assistants by creating performative synthetic voices that can present with more than one age, gender and geographic origin.

https://multivocal.org

_____

Syb: Queering voice AI
#feministinternet #queeringvoiceai #syb
Team: Feminist Internet & Cami Rincòn

Syb is a voice interface designed by and for trans people which connects users to media created by the trans community. The project was developed through a participatory design process with a team of trans and non-binary people.

http://syb.feministchatbot.com

_____

Just Wondering
#AnimatedEssays #ClimateJustice #PosthumanistPhilosophy
Team: Maria Martelli, Aron Nor, Mina Mimosa

We create animated essays that take radical and critical approaches to the current status quo in order to move people to feel differently, inspire them to imagine and to reflect on complex subjects. By transforming academic knowledge into an audio-visual experience, Just Wondering makes contemporary ideas from philosophy and sociology more accessible.

https://www.justwondering.io https://www.youtube.com/c/justwondering https://twitter.com/justwonderingyt https://www.facebook.com/justwonderingyt