A Soul for Europe Conference 2016 on 8 and 9 November 2016
at Allianz Forum, Pariser Platz 6, 10117 Berlin, Germany

Bearing the title Cultural Identities on the Move, the conference will react to the current European challenges in a creative way and draft proposals for intensified cooperation between politics and civil society in the cities and regions of Europe. Since its first edition in 2004, the conference has aimed at integrating culture more strongly into the complex process of European integration, revealing the centrality of culture as its creative motor. We thus invite committed European citizens, intellectuals, artists, politicians, representatives from NGOs, economy and the media to join us in the debate. More than ever, Europe has to become the Europeans' cause!

Please mark the date in your agenda and join us in Berlin! Invitations with a registration link will be sent shortly.

The conference will be jointly organized, prepared, and funded with the Allianz Cultural Foundation, the conference's partner since 2004, as well as the Evens Foundation, Goethe Institut, traduki / S. Fischer Foundation and the initiative "Cities for Europe" at Stiftung Zukunft Berlin. European Parliament has been involved with "A Soul for Europe" from the beginning and since 2014 has taken on the patronage of the conference.
